INDEX

TO THE PRINCIPAL MATTERS

IN THIS VOLUME.

[For Digest of the Reports, see end of volume.]

ANECDOTES—
"A deed without a name," 98.
Practical Knowledge, 102.
Garrick and Lord Camden, 143.
Lord Tenterden's remarks with reference to Sir Robert Peel having undertaken certain amendments of the law, 156.
False prophets, ib.
Personal identity, ib.
Ludicrous error of Franklin, 228.
Man in a state of nature, 196.
Sir Robert Peel and his opponents, 396.
Judge Edmonds and Benj. Franklin, ib.

ARTICLES—
On the plea of Insanity in Criminal cases, 1, 41, 101, 192.
On accumulation of property settled to separate use, 3.
On collision of ships, 61.
On examination of witnesses on the voir dire, 117.
On donations mortis causa, 157, 197.
On life insurance societies, 199.
On conditions in restraint of marriage, 200.
On tradesmens' marks, 225, 230.
On criminal liability, 227.
On law reading, 228.
On presumption of survivorship, 269.
On principles of equity, 307.
On affidavits by persons residing abroad to be used in the English courts, 309.
On Agency, 333.
On Bill for an account, 365.
On examination of Students, 395.
On slander—priviledged communication, 398
On liability of infants for torts, 399.

DANIEL WEBSTER—Extract from his speech in the Girard Case, 412.

FACETIOUSNESS OF THE LAW—
Husband and wife, 155.
An estate in fee simple, 156.

HISTORICAL OUTLINES, 4, 59, 79, 100, 113.

HOUSE OF LORDS—Case with reference to separate estates of married women, 305.

LEGAL LYRICS—
O think not your pleadings, 116.

MASSACHUSETTS v. MAINE—
Their Bench and Bar, 81.

OBITUARY—
Charles D. Betts, Esq., 146.
The Hon. Joseph Story, 364.

ON DIT—
Westminster Hall, 196.

POST OFFICE—
The act to reduce the postage, &c., 219.

PRACTICAL POINTS—
Jury, 43.
Dissolution of partnership, 63.
Executors' allowances, 85.
Signatures to deeds, 103.
Equity—infant—next friend—removing, 119.
ne exeat—filing bill—prayer of writ, 232
Separate estate of married woman, 159.
Assignment for the benefit of creditors, ib.
Vendor and purchaser—lessor's title, ib.
Crim con—evidence, 160.
Criminal law—Larceny, 202, 311.
Conspiracy, 335, 336.
Attempt to poison, 337.
Indictment 412.
Conditional tender, 233.
Bill of interpleader, where it lies, 271.
Bankrupt—fraudulent preference, 294.
Broker special contract—negligence—damages, 308.
Discovery, ib.
Assignment of goods and chattels, 310.
Injunction, ib.
Devise of trust estate, ib.
Bills of Exchange, 311.
Power of attorney, 317.
Specific performance, 326.
Guarantee, 332.
Licence by patentee—dedication to the public, 334
Fraudulent preference in contemplation of Insolvency 335.
Husband and wife, 336.
Set off, 353.
Power of attorney, ib.
Wager, 356.

RULES OF PRACTICE of the United States in cases of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction, 357